

Building the Culture of the

People from Occupy Queens along with the Commons Coalition and Organization from Jackson Heights, Woodside and Corona are getting together to share their ideas and knowledge on how the different ways in which a politics of the commons can be developed.

In particular, we are interested in understanding how groups and communities working on housing, health care, education, food, human and workers rights, energy, immigration, information technology, and communication and knowledge resources can develop a vision of these resources as commons: a third form of social organization to the state and corporate capitalism.

SATURDAY, MARCH 24TH

Time: 12 (noon)

Party & Play Time

Come out and enjoy meeting your neighbors and playing hopscotch, free play, live music and potluck picnic.

Time: 1PM

Meet - Talk - Think

We will create a space in which everyone has equal voice on the issues that matter to most.

37TH ROAD PLAZA • Jackson Heights

Btw. 73rd & 74th Sts. 1 blk. north of Roosevelt Ave. (Roosevelt Ave./74th St.: E, F, M, R, & 7 trains)

Occupy and residents are increasingly using the Plaza as a community commons

• Time: 2PM to 4 PM

• Social Assembly

- Open conversation between all the participants. We believe that you don't need to belong to any particular group, or have any particular expertise in order to be entitled to participate in politics. Politics is also part of the Commons, something that should belong to everyone.
